

INTRODUCTION

CHAUNCEY BEATY

Feel free to leave your phones on and tweet during this program. Be sure to use hashtag #TheHeartWorker. However, please take a moment and turn your ringer off.

My name is _____. I am (your position) from (your organization), and it's my pleasure to welcome you! This program is sponsored by (list of organization).

Our speaker today is Chauncey Beaty.

Chauncey Beaty is a TEDx speaker, award-winning poet, certified life coach, and master facilitator. She is known as "The Heart Worker," for her ability quickly laser into the heart space of her audience members with her down-to-earth witty yet smart and poignant insights. Chauncey easily creates a safe interactive learning environment where "hard topics" shift into "heart topics".

She is a proud ambassador for the Greater Than AIDS (GTA) campaign, a movement aimed to elevate the public's knowledge and understanding of HIV/AIDS. She has been featured in Greater Than AIDS commercials on NBC, CBS, Fox, Google TV, and its affiliate broadcast stations.

Chauncey's image is used in print-ads and on billboards across the country with the slogans "My life is worth protecting" and "Speak up for yourself." She was one of the featured artists on season one of the TV One's hit show, Verses and Flow. Host Hill Harper compared her to poet, scholar, and activist, Nikki Giovanni.

Chauncey earned a Bachelor of Arts from Winthrop University in Psychology and a Master of Arts in Humanities (African American and African Studies) from The Ohio State University. Chauncey is member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc and a native of Greenville, South Carolina.

Let's welcome Chauncey Beaty!